

Simple, Personalised Cremation Funeral with Service

£2665 (inc disbursements)

We serve families across Swansea, Neath and Gorseinon

The current pandemic restrictions are limiting the number of mourners present to 10/15 people. But a smaller funeral does not mean it is any less meaningful. What matters is how the time is spent.

You may have ideas that you want help with. Or, you may feel unable to process thoughts – we are here to help. We will hand hold you through what needs to happen. And use our creativity to help you plan a dignified, family farewell.

An Intimate Gathering

Families we have been working with are commenting on how they have appreciated the intimacy of a small family gathering in a way they could not have expected. It enables you to be able to say things you may not have felt free to say with a larger crowd. And to show emotion without feeling any pressure.

Minister or Celebrant Led Service

Minister led: If a faith is to form part of your service, we can help to arrange for a Minister of any faith – or maybe you already have your own Minister or priest that you know. We work as a team with the Minister to ensure the details of the service reflect a personal farewell.

Celebrant led: We work with several talented celebrants and humanist celebrants (non-religious) who can help you to plan a fitting, meaningful farewell. We are using creative ways to include family members and friends who cannot attend. Tributes from non-attending family members could be voice recorded to be played during the service time.

Family Letter Tribute. For some families, a full eulogy doesn't feel appropriate at this time when numbers are limited. But they still feel they would like something read out. A Family Letter Tribute is proving far easier for families when they wish to share a memory or story in a less formal way. We have seen beautiful services created with the simplest of touches.

Personalise the service – to help make things easy for a family we include the simplest essentials for a funeral with transport and a simple coffin. But you can personalise as you like with optional extras – alternative transport, coffins, stunning flower sprays, memory booklets or Order of Service. We are a creative team that love to help you to reflect the style of your family member's life as you know it.
